Conference Banquet with Keynote Speaker Davey Hamilton

Davey Hamilton was born June 13th 1962 in Nampa, Idaho. Davey is best known as a race car driver in the Indy Racing League IndyCar Series. He has made 50 series starts and has finished second three times. Hamilton placed second in series points in the 1996-1997 season and again in 1998. He has earned seven podium finishes and twice finished second in the IRL championship, coming within six points of beating fellow shorttracker Tony Stewart to the 1997 title. Then it all went wrong at Texas Motor Speedway in June 2001; oil from another car's blown engine snapped Hamilton's machine into a spin, the car became airborne and the catch fence literally shredded the driver's feet. Davey will share his story of chasing his racing dream and how it nearly ended one day in Texas. His inspiring story of his road back to the cockpit of a race car is moving and motivational.
